

Please read the following information carefully BEFORE you complete your application.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are outside Australia to apply for a Tourist visa to visit Australia for tourism or other recreational activities (holiday, sightseeing, social or recreational reasons, to visit relatives or friends, or other short-term non-work purposes including study).

- If you want to apply for a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, you will need to complete form 48S, and your sponsor will need to complete form 1149.
- If you intend visiting Australia for medical treatment you should use form 48ME.
- If you intend to study in Australia for more than 3 months you should apply for a student visa. Please contact the nearest Australian overseas mission for information on student visa applications, including the correct application form.
- If you intend visiting Australia for a short business trip (including attending a conference) you should use form 456.

You must complete all questions in all sections. Failure to answer any question completely and accurately may result in the application being refused, or the visa may be cancelled at a later date.

Type of visas

A visa must be obtained BEFORE travelling to Australia. A visitor visa granted following the processing of this application may be in the form of a label, placed in your passport. A visa may be for a single entry or for multiple entries. Following an assessment of your application by a visa officer, a decision will be made on whether or not to grant a visa and for what period of time. The type of visa, length of stay, conditions and a number of entries will be indicated on your visa label or in the letter the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) will send you if you are granted the visa.

You can apply for the following type of visa:

Tourist visa, class TR, subclass 676

This visa can be applied for from outside Australia (offshore) or in Australia.

Visa validity

A Tourist visa allows a stay of up to 12 months. A stay beyond 12 months is ONLY granted where 'exceptional' circumstances exist.

It may be granted for a single entry or multiple entries within a specified period.

Generally a Tourist visa (subclass 676) allows a stay in Australia of 3 months or 6 months and is valid for multiple visits within 12 months from the date of grant.

It should be noted, however, under Australia's migration regulations, decision-makers may grant a Tourist visa permitting the visa holder to travel to and to remain in Australia for a specified period that they see as appropriate. In some circumstances the stay period granted may be less than the stay period requested by the applicant.

For more detailed information check the Visiting Australia website www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm

Ways to apply

There are 3 ways to apply for a Tourist visa:

- apply directly electronically over the internet;
- apply directly on a paper application form; or
- use Service Delivery Partners.

Service Delivery Partners (SDP) provide visa application services on behalf of the department in some countries. For more detailed information, and to check if an SDP is available in your country, please visit the Contact Us web page www.immi.gov.au/contacts/overseas/

To apply for a Tourist visa from outside Australia:

- Applications for a Tourist visa may be made via the internet using registered travel agents, airline services, an SDP or by applicants applying directly on the internet. To apply through the internet, you must hold an eligible passport. A list of eligible passports for this service is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm
- Applications for a Tourist visa may also be made in the conventional way (on a paper application form) at an Australian Embassy, High Commission or Consulate (use this form).

To apply for a Tourist visa in Australia:

- Applications for a further stay in Australia as a Tourist may be made via the internet or at an office of the department or by mail depending on the length of the total stay period.
- If you entered Australia on an Electronic Travel Authority (ETA) or Tourist visa (subclass 676), you can apply for another Tourist visa (subclass 676) for a total stay of up to 6 months, or 12 months in exceptional circumstances, from the date you last entered on the ETA or subclass 676. Applications can be made over the internet or using form 601 Application for further stay as a visitor. Further information is available on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/

For more details on visa lodgement options check the Visiting Australia website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm

Visa Application Charge

There is a non-refundable application charge which must accompany each application.

- The application cannot be processed until this charge has been received.
- The fee will not be refunded if a visa is not granted.

To check the Visa Application Charge, see form 990i Charges available from the forms section of the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Who can you include in this application?

Only one passport-holder can apply on one form. You can include in your application any children on your passport who will be travelling with you. If another adult is included in your passport they should complete a separate application form.

Conditions for a tourist visa to Australia

Visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions you should not apply for a visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled or you may be subject to other penalties. If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should ask for more information from an Australian overseas mission.

On return of your passport, carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa.

CONDITIONS

8101 – You must NOT work while in Australia.

8201 – You must NOT study for more than 3 months while in Australia.

8205 – Where this condition applies, and you intend to study for longer than 4 weeks, you are required to pass a chest x-ray examination before you are able to commence study.

8503 – No Further Stay.

Following an assessment of your application, a visa officer may decide to apply the 8503 condition on your visa. The 8503 (or No Further Stay) condition means that the holder of the visa on which the condition has been imposed will not, after entering Australia, be entitled to be granted any other visa¹, while the holder remains in Australia.

¹ Except in extremely limited circumstances which are outside your control, or to engage Australia's protection obligation under the 1951 UN convention relating to the status of refugees.

The effect of this visa condition is that it will not be possible for you to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of your visa. It is particularly important, if your visit to Australia is to attend a specific event, that you organise your travel so that you can attend these events within your authorised period of stay as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

If the 8503 condition is imposed on your visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or the letter advising you of the grant of your visa, with the words 8503 – NO FURTHER STAY.

There may be other conditions depending on the purpose of your visit.

How to apply

- Applicants from certain nationalities may be eligible to apply for a Tourist visa on the internet. Further information about this service is available on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/
- To apply in person or by mail you will need to complete a paper application form. Note: False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia. The completed application form can be lodged at your nearest Australian overseas mission.
- You may arrange for another person to help you complete the application form, but you must sign it. If you have been assisted in completing the application form, you should only sign the declaration(s) if the information in it is true and correct.
- Lodge your application form, the application charge and any attachments at the nearest overseas mission or Service Delivery Partner. Your application may be lodged personally, by your representative or sent by mail.
- You will need to provide either your passport or a 'certified true' copy of the biodata and visaed pages of your passport with your application.

You may also be required to present your passport once a decision on your application has been made, to enable a visa label to be affixed.

Note: Some Australian government offices overseas do not accept visa applications at their offices. Information about special arrangements for lodgement of visa applications at specific Australian government offices overseas may be found on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/contacts/overseas/ or by contacting your nearest Australian government office.

- Please follow any directions given by the visa processing officer as to medical or x-ray examinations that may be required.
- On the return of your passport, carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa. If you have any concerns or questions about the requirements or limitations, you should contact the office that granted the visa before travelling to Australia. You should not assume that any changes to your immigration status can be made after your arrival in Australia.

Residential address

You must provide the address where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address in this application will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Health insurance

It is recommended that you take out health insurance for you and your family for the period of stay in Australia. You will not be covered by Australia's national health scheme, unless you are covered by a reciprocal health care agreement.

Vaccinations

If it is your intention to enrol your child in an Australian school or childcare centre (creche or preschool) during your visit to Australia, you are strongly encouraged to carry certification of your child's vaccination status.

Vaccination is recommended against polio, tetanus, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), Haemophilus influenzae hypo (Hib), and Hepatitis B.

Certification may be sought at time of enrolment.

Note: Vaccination against rubella is also recommended for women of child bearing age.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

Options for receiving written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all communications, both written and electronic, about your application with the department. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To do this you will need to complete Part J Options for receiving written communications and form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient. For an explanation of what a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient can do please read the sections below.

To change or end the appointment of your migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient you must promptly advise the department in writing. You can do this by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

An authorised recipient is someone you appoint to receive written communications about your application with the department.

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Exempt agents

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister);
- a sponsor or nominator for this visa application;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Further information on migration agents

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

About the information you give in this form

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided² will be used by the department for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel, enter and remain in Australia and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example, to assist migrants with settling in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents, or for ensuring compliance with the Migration Act.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to Federal, State and Territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

If your application for a Tourist visa has also been supported by an Australian Member of Parliament or a Community Leader based in Australia, information on the outcome of your application and of your compliance with visa conditions, if your visa is granted, may be provided to the Member of Parliament or the Community Leader.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the department's offices, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

The department has authority under the Migration Act 1958 to collect a range of personal identifiers from non-citizens, including visa applicants, in certain circumstances. For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 also relates to your personal information. Under this Act you can apply for access to documents containing your personal information. You or someone authorised to access information on your behalf can apply to do this at any of the department's offices in Australia. There is no fee for accessing your own information. If you are overseas, you must provide an address in Australia to which copies of your personal records can be sent. More information on how to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 is given on form 424A Request for access to documents.

²The information provided in relation to health on this form, and the results of any tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory Health agencies.

Application checklist

With your application you must include:

- if you require a visa label affixed to your passport you must include your passport for processing. However, if you are being evidenced at an alternate immigration overseas mission or you are able to travel label free, please include a 'certified true' copy of your passport biodata and visaed pages with this application
- your passport or copy of relevant pages as necessary
- details of how you want your passport returned. The department does not recommend return of passports by ordinary mail. Your passport can be returned by:
 - registered mail (please included a passport sized envelope with your address and sufficient postage for registered mail); or
 - ordinary mail (please included a passport sized envelope with your address and sufficient postage); or
 - courier (please check with the office where you wish to lodge your application regarding courier arrangements)
- a recent passport photograph of yourself and any children included in your passport and travelling with you
- the application charge
- if required, authorisation for children to travel with you (refer to the section of the form 'Children included' for details)

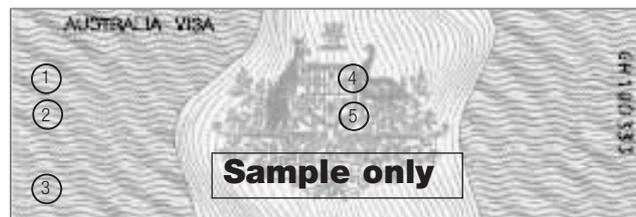

When you have lodged your application, you should attach your receipt to this sheet.

Additional documentation

Under the Migration Act 1958, decision-makers are not obliged to seek additional information from the applicant before making a decision on a visa application. It is therefore in the applicant's best interest to submit the following documentation with their application:

- evidence of funds;
- evidence of your medical/travel insurance;
- medical examination or tests;
- a letter from your employer confirming your leave;
- evidence of enrolment at school, college or university;
- if visiting close family in Australia (who is a citizen or permanent resident of Australia), a letter of invitation to visit;
- other information that you have an incentive and authority to return to your country of residence.

Understanding your visa label

If you are granted a visa, the following information is provided to assist you with understanding the terms and conditions of your visa.

- 1 The name of the office that granted your visa.
- 2 Your name, and the names of any family members included in your application.
- 3 Visa validity information, including:
 - the date your visa was granted;
 - the date by which you must enter Australia;
 - the number of times you can travel to Australia within the validity of the visa; and
 - your authorised period of stay in Australia.
- 4 The type of visa you have been granted.
- 5 The conditions attached to your visa:
8101 – NO WORK
8201 – MAX 3 MONTHS STUDY
8205 – A CHEST X-RAY IF STUDY MORE THAN 4 WEEKS

A description of these conditions is provided on page 2.

There may be another condition:

8503 – NO FURTHER STAY

If this condition is printed on your visa you will generally not be able to apply for another visa in Australia. A full description of this condition is provided on page 2.

There may be other visa conditions, depending on the purpose of your visit.
